He sent his workers in search of the bag, but none could find it. Sam was so sad that he had lost so many gold coins. After a couple of days, a ten-year-old girl found the small bag. Her father worked in Sam's land and he told his daughter that the bag belonged to his master and he would return the bag to his master.

He gave the bag back to his master. Sam, who was literally happy to get the coins back, decided to play a trick. He shouted at his worker, 'there were 75 gold coins in this bag and you gave me only 50! Where are the other coins? You have stolen them!' The worker was shocked to hear this, and he pleaded to his master that he gave whatever his daughter had found. Sam did not accept the worker's story, and decided to take the issue to court. The judge heard both the sides. The judge then made his judgment, 'Since Sam lost a bag of 75 gold coins and the bag found by the girl had only 50 coins, it is clear that the bag found, didn't belong to Sam, and it was lost by someone else. In addition, if anyone found a bag of 75 gold coins, I will declare that it belongs to Sam.
